

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"As an artist, you always have to reinvent yourself"

- Marilyn Manson

Marilyn Manson

The Path of Misery

- Artist, author, singer, rocker, director, provocateur and cultural icon MARILYN MANSON will present for the first time in Mexico his work as a fine artist.
- The exhibition named "The Path of Misery" opens to the public on November 4th at the Museum Antigua Colegio de San Ildefonso.

MEXICO CITY, October 24th, 2011 - Fine Artist MARILYN MANSON will be visiting Mexico City during the month of November to present his newest exhibit "The Path of Misery". MANSON, Inspired by Egon Schiele, post war vienesse vanguard artist, Dali and fascinated by the grotesque and degenerative, shows us his interior by means of his fine art depicting stylized and decaying figures.

MANSON has presented his paintings in several solo exhibitions in various museums and galleries in Vienna, Los Angeles, Paris, Berlin, Miami, Moscow, Cologne and Sao Paulo, amongst others.

The exhibit will be organized and produced by 212 Productions with the collaboration of the Museum Antigua Colegio de San Ildefonso.

For additional information regarding MARILYN MANSON's "The Path of Misery" please contact Press Services. To request press credentials for the press conference, press walk-thru and red carpet visit: www.marilynmansonmexico.com and under the menu register in press accreditation or contact Press Services.